Invitation to the Japanese business community

Open Hour with Experts: Insights into the current state of Israel's economy, business continuity and market opportunities for Japanese companies

The Israel Japan Chamber of Commerce is pleased to invite you to participate in our Open Hour program.

This program was designed to provide to the business community in Japan accurate information about the current state of Israel's economy, business continuity in difficult times, and interesting market opportunities. Our panelist are distinguished members of the Israeli business community with many years of experience in the Japan-Israel ecosystem.

The program will be held in a Q&A format and participants are invited to submit questions in advance or to raise them live during the event.

Participation is free of charge but requires advance registration.

The meeting will be held in English.
